

HOUSE

(project no. PPI/APM/2019/1/00053/U/00001)

Workshop #2: Sources and #urbanonto building

September 28-30, 2020, Online

Day 1 (September 28): 2:30PM-6:00PM CEST

2:30 PM A municipal plot and the reconstruction of medieval Silesian town. Experiences based on the project of the Historical Atlas of Polish Towns – Rafał Eysymontt (University of Wrocław)

Discussion – chair Marek Stoń (Tadeusz Manteuffel’s Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences)

4:00 PM Yards, gutters and open spaces. How archaeology defines urban space – Paweł Cembrzyński (Christian-Albrecht-University, Kiel)

Discussion – chair Tomasz Związek (Stanisław Leszczycki Institute of Geography and Spatial Organization, Polish Academy of Sciences)

5:30 PM Reaching boundaries of the plot definition – Katarzyna Słomska-Przech, Michał Słomski, (Tadeusz Manteuffel’s Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences)

Final comments – Wiesława Duży (Tadeusz Manteuffel’s Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences)

Day 2 (September 29): 2:30PM-6:00PM CEST

2:30 PM Squares. Beyond the definition. The results of the three year project on Warsaw squares – dr Maciej Frąckowiak, (Adam Mickiewicz University, SWPS University), Aleksandra Litorowicz (Fundacja Puszka, SWPS University), Bogna Świątkowska (Fundacja Bęc Zmiana)

4:00 PM Workshop: discussion on ontology building, notions: square, street, park, garden – chair Wiesława Duży (Tadeusz Manteuffel’s Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences)

Day 3 (September 30): 2:30PM-6:00PM CEST

2:30PM Workshop: discussion on ontology building, notions: harbour, chapel, school, industry – chairs Aleksander Łupienko, Anna Paulina Orłowska (Tadeusz Manteuffel's Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences)

The aim of the workshop is to create eight “golden definitions” of some notions necessary to build a #urbanonto model. The HOUSE project is designed to be useful within an international milieu, therefore it is essential to include various perspectives in the whole process of elaborating an ontology of urban space. Building a simple yet complete definition is essential in this process. We want to invite our guests to join us in this experiment.

In case of any questions please write an email at: urbanonto@ihpan.edu.pl